▼ “ My bullshit friend“ Calls himself a conservative.

Find yourself a better friend homie. I've started to slowly clear out and distance myself from all my cuckservative friends. I just don't want that kind of useless attitude around me anymore.

Cuckservatives have sat on their hands since the 60's and wonder why the country is in the state that it is. If you actually care about the US sitting on your ass isn't an option anymore.

We need more senators to object. And every two hour debate block won't help much they don't use their time to showcase the best, most succinct, and normie attention span busting evidence from every state legislature hearing. January 6th, we must show the world the incontrovertible evidence and surround the capitol. We will WIN!

History pedes, this is the congressional record when this exact thing happened in 1877. It'd be nice to pour through it to see what went down, how it was conducted, if evidence was admitted (I don't think it was, see page 3 when the Senator from North Carolina motions for a resolution to include evidence "... I maintain that we must have the evidence before us ; and we must not only have it before us in a general sense, but we must have it before us in an official sense; we must have it before us under the special jurisdiction that we are exercising to count the electoral vote for President and Vice-President."

He sent this at 12:06.

- 12+6=18
- R=18th letter of the alphabet
- R only appears in the first word of this tweet
- The first word of this tweet is the first month of the year.
- This is followed by an ordinal number spelled out
- That ordinal number = "6th"

This either means something big is about to happen on January 6th OR... He's clearly under duress.

Bigot, how dare you presume they are extraterrestrial when they could just be humans from the future, nor do they have to be biological as they could also be machine life. I am literally foaming at the mouth at your total lack of disregard as to the racial makeup of our fellow entities.

situation in the nation's capital in the middle of winter without a plan? And remind everyone 4 times (latest all in caps). By calling it a 'protest', Trump has to maintain the narrative that these crowds will be objecting to something. Keeps the media wheels spinning.

Remember...

- Trump has not conceded anything (if anything he has declared himself the winner)
- Trump has not relented on his fight on election fraud and keeps pushing cases to SCOTUS
- That 2018 EO is still in play
- Trump already enacted an EO that spans well beyond Jan 20
- Media is screaming 'coup coup coup'. Remember, they ALWAYS project

Same situation, been off since october, on call to head back to work, if I decided to go and get called I'll be looking at working again in Feb. I might head to my capital though.

My understanding is at the US Capitol (the area between SCOTUS and the Capitol building) but I have heard some say Congress as well.

What if I told you Congress is a parliamentary body which works and meets within the Capitol building?

You got me smartass. I realize that ( now) but I have heard other people refer to congress and the Capitol as if they were two different meeting locations. Doing my best to be actually helpful.

Anyways, thanks for your input...

There is a very real, human part of life that you and your silly friend can't see in this moment. There is a very clear path to victory that doesn't require a larp, but does require bold action from a few individuals. But whatever does happen, carrying a loser mental will always ensure losing results for you. I personally don't give these kinds of people any time in my personal/professional life though. Enjoy weighing illusory probabilities though! I'm have no doubt it'll sway somebody.

This, sadly, is the average cuckservative's gameplan. Remember though, it doesn't take a majority to start a revolution. We don't need 100 million people with ARs in DC. A few hundred dedicated patriots can be the spark of something that grows much bigger.
